1:20 p.m. ET Draft Rule on Clinical Assessment***

- Anderson iterates rule language for consideration and written comments submitted for review. Introduces discussion.
- Apking notes examples from the language.
  - Anderson iterates current discussion in Rules Committee concerning limitations to Clinical Assessment.
  - Jessica O'Brien asks if other matters have been referenced for approval in language. References to Section 2G.
  - Schaal also asks if Section 2G and if the definition of "compact privilege" was changed.
    - Samantha Nance cross reference of definition of "clinical assessment" in Section 2D. Suggests amendment and clarification.
    - Corey Schaal makes motion, O'Brien seconds. Passes unanimously.
  - Bistan iterates Rules Committee would need to bring more rules suggestions pertaining "assessment" definitions in the future.
- Anderson entertains motion. Asks for further discussion. Roll call vote, passes unanimously (see above chart).

1:30 p.m. ET Review RFP Responses for Data System***

- Anderson introduces the topic.
- Dr. Bistan summarizes the executive committee's interviews with RFP vendor candidates. Notes unanimous recommendation to move forward with Inspiring Apps RFP.
- Schaal notes demos for review are available with Inspiring Apps. Iterates Inspiring Apps' experience with states and compacts, and that their proposal makes more prudential sense as opposed to the So Company.

DDH Dentist and Dental Hygienist Compact

- Sacksteder notes that she watched the demo and was satisfied, despite initial caution on moving forward with a vendor selection decision without familiarity with the product.
- Anderson entertains motion. Bistan makes motion, Catherine Ronier-Reiter seconds; Anderson asks for further questions/discussion.
  - Schaal asks if the demo video was sent to all commission members.
  - Kaitlyn Bison will send the demo to the rest of the commission.
  - Sacksteder asks about moving forward with RFP without funding.
  - Nance clarifies that the next steps (based on experience with other compact commissions) would be the execution and contract process, after a vote to proceed, then the securing of funding.
  - Sacksteder notes concern over state being charged without clear process for funding. Anderson notes the same concern.
  - Schaal points out that funding is still in process. But once the process could ensue, with currently no funding inhabitations. Clarified that the current vote allows for consideration and pursuit of project.
  - Bistan notes that there will be no costs to the states, and that funding needs more developing with CSG. Encourages moving forward with the vote.
  - Anderson asks Nance if motion should be amended.
    - Nance confirms the motion for a friendly amendment would be acceptable in authorizing next steps with inspiring Apps with caveat clarifying securing funding to avoid liability for record.
    - Catherine RR accepts the friendly amendment.
- Anderson asks for vote on friendly motion. Motion carries unanimously.

1:45 p.m. ET

Review of DDH Annual Report Draft

- Anderson introduces the topic.
- Schaal notes changes on “Introduction” page, in changing “2024” to “2025” for fiscal year. Asks about second paragraph – notes funding source from American Dental Hygienists Association. Anderson confirms accurate details.
  - Other changes requests include:
    - Spelling of “Bridgett” in the last paragraph.
    - Page four {4; regarding states): Status of Arkansas’ enactment. Asks for addition. Bison notes there has not been a nomination of delegate – poses question to commission.
      - Anderson notes not needed without commissioner. Schaal agrees.
    - Page seven (7): moving the location of “2023 DDH”.
    - Fonts formatting cohesion.
  - Page eleven: “Rules committee” replacing “Finance committee”
- Apking asks a question about committee appointments. Anderson invites her to join. Apking volunteers for appointment.
